

Timothy Carlton-McQueen

I am opposed to Data Center projects like these especially when our state is experiencing a water crisis that is part of an interstate commerce pact. I believe we must uphold our current water compacts and treaties before we allow any new data centers. Water will always be more important and valuable to the state than this project.