

Emily Pedone

I am writing to strongly oppose this project. It will not bring meaningful benefit to our area and there has been lots of data for projects like this being ultimately harmful for the areas they are installed in. We are already in a precarious position with water and natural resources, and this will contribute to the problem. Please do not allow this to move forward.