

Nathaniel Conroy

Hello. The Project Jupiter data center will cause irreparable damage to New Mexico's landscape, land, air, and water. This extends beyond just the area immediately surrounding the site to the entirety of New Mexico and beyond. Given our state's already strained natural resources, I am vehemently against this project. It would be hard for me to consider continuing my life in New Mexico if this project is allowed to proceed.