

Ruby Street

It is completely insane to me that anyone would ever consider AI more important than our planet. If we do not take care of our home humanity will have nothing left but our sentience which is pretty much just hell. see you all in 20 years when we all have skin and lung cancer 🙄