

James Decker

I am opposed to the building of a data center which would emit more greenhouse gases than Albuquerque and Las Cruces combined. In the desert, water is vital for life, and should not be wasted on artificial intelligence.