Billionaires are doing EVERYTHING but helping the planet. Get your stuff together and realise that we DONT NEED AI DATA CENTERS. WHO I mean WHO asked for them? Did the world say "Omg we need them so bad". And the fact you expect us to trust that your data center will not affect water usage proves you certainly didn't exceed well in chemistry or basic fucking knowledge. The earth is going down WITH YOU not AROUND you. We cannot eat money but we can consume the crops that we grow WITH THAT WATER YOU'RE WASTING. I will not say "will be" because there hopefully will not be a "will be". Thanks for reading.
