

Judy Zamora

Approving this permit would severely hinder not only the people of New Mexico but also the entire environment including all animals and plants. I strongly oppose the approval of this permit as the negative impact it will have on our beautiful state far outweighs any benefit it proposes to have.