

valentin montoya

we really cannot have this data center built, it will make our already hard lives in NM harder. The amount of water and energy this data center will consume for nothing is egregious and upsetting. please please please don't ruin our beautiful city with evil, useless, tech.