

Rosalinda Roman

Don't build project Jupiter , our state is already suffering with nothing but desert and have limited resources of water . Our land , and any resources we do have is going to be ruined , and any damage that is done can't be reversed or be saved. We need to protect our land instead of destroying it with selfish and money hungry intentions.