

Ember Reyes

I highly oppose the construction of this data center. New Mexico is already facing a water crisis, the Rio grande is drying up, we're facing higher than average temperatures. A data center would only exponentially increase these issues. For the safety and health of New Mexicans and this state, this cannot be built.