

A. Trent

I, like most other New Mexicans, are absolutely opposed to Project Jupiter and the building of data centers in our beautiful state. We need to keep them out of our communities to maintain the health and safety of all. Do not build data centers here, they are climate disasters and not worth any profit that puts our health at risk.