

Genevieve Davis

The building of a data center is completely unnecessary. It will horribly affect the environment and the water sources around it. Greed is evil.