

Elizabeth Lucero

It goes against culture and the community to approve the development of Project Jupiter. The Data center gets built, then what? No water for communities and New Mexicans die. They get sick, they leave. Then the state is a wasteland. Approving Project Jupiter means approving this outcome. Do Not Approve this dangerous project, listen to the voices of the people who trusted your guidance and supported your organization through election and tax money.