

Anonymous Anonymous

I prefer the birds bees animals and trees over literal ai. Why do we need it? Humans survived thousands of years without needing ai why are we randomly acting like we are dependent on it. We were so much better off before we even had it. People were smarter and the planet was healthier.