

Isidro Gonzalez

Dear Chair and Members of the Environmental Improvement Board:

Economic development succeeds when communities, businesses, and government work together. From everything I have seen, Project Jupiter has continued engaging stakeholders throughout the permitting process while working to improve the project along the way.

I believe New Mexico should encourage that type of collaboration, and I respectfully support approval of the air quality permit applications.

Thank you for your service.

Isidro Gonzalez