

Enrique Lopez

This project should absolutely not be permitted to go through. The state is already suffering from severe water shortages and industrial air pollution in certain areas as well as power outages. This project has next to no benefits for an inordinate amount of cost on our land. It should not proceed under any circumstances in its current state.