

Sarah Aguirre

I oppose the YGI Microgrid and this project. The environmental impact of a project of such scale could be devastating. It will severely strain the already precious resources of water and energy in southern NM. Doña Ana county and its residents have very little to gain from this and a lot to lose.