

Lizzy Hines

I vehemently oppose the building of Project Jupiter's data center. We do not have answers or evidence that this will be a constructive, clean action for our communities and the greater state of New Mexico, and therefore we should not be moving forward on this.