

Michaela Dolly

Please reject the application for Project Jupiter's air quality permit and subsequent applications to install data centers in our resource-scarce state. We simply do not have the natural resources to support data centers of this size that consume massive quantities of water and power and emit pollutants into our delicate ecosystems. We have to preserve the water and soil quality in New Mexico for future generations and already face so many challenges. Thank you!