

Michael Pitula

I oppose this project, because I do not believe it is in the best interest of the state's residents. It demands water we do not have. It would exceed emissions targets we need to stay below to avoid the worst consequences of runaway climate change. I believe these impacts would violate the human and constitutional rights of minors in our state and beyond.