

Tasnim Clarke

The air quality permit should be denied to do Bloom Energy's history of illegal dumping. If the permit is not denied there should be a hearing held in Santa Teresa, in English and Spanish, so that the residents that will be the people directly affected can be heard. It is environmental racism to push through permits just in the interest of profit and without the communities approval.