

Anonymous Anonymous

I live in Florida and i believe that building this data center will provide nothing good to the world. AI is not needed and we can live even better without this data center. All the companies want is money and they do not care about human lives. This data center will quickly heat up the atmosphere and cause even more troubles than we already have. STOP THIS NOW. We should all live in harmony with the world around us and stop the harming of our earth before its too late.