

Carter Johnson

Project Jupiter's carbon output will further accelerate the global climate decline, this project should be canceled for the safety of humanity. For the sake of the local communities that this data center will destroy and damage. For the sake of our future generations to create a planet we may live on, Project Jupiter will be a disaster that we will not be able to undo.