

Emily Crouse

No! The people of New Mexico do not approve of any data center. This so called Jupiter project must be stopped. Naming it after a God and a planet like it's inevitable is shameful. Data centers are man made and can be unmade by man. Data centers are not safe for our water, earth, and are certainly not safe our air.