

Eli Becker

I strongly oppose the construction of project Jupiter that would come at the detriment of our gorgeous New Mexican nature. Water is too precious to use for cooling GPUs. The only people who benefit from this project are the few billionaires who would destroy our entire planet for a few bucks in their portfolio. We came from Mother Nature so we must respect her and our communities who would be affected by this travesty. Stop data centers before it's too late for us all