

James Fortney

This is an environmental disaster and should never be considered. Where is the water coming from? We already pull so much from the aquifers. Why do you want to let them pollute the air with their gas generators? Reject Jupiter. You have the opportunity to be the solution not the problem. Please consider whoever lets this pass would be contributing to the decline of our states natural resources.