

Mango Anonymous

Our air is not a thing to throw around. The air does not belong to companies, it does not belong to only certain people, it belongs to the planet, therefore it belongs to everybody. I am signing this petition because if nobody will take action, then it means the kids and teenagers are the hope. And I, myself, am a teenager. I really hope this project will get canceled.