

Rachel Simmons

Hello, The proposed data center Jupiter will have direct negative consequences on the environment and air quality. It is imperative that it's progression is stopped before further damage is caused to the ecosystem. As a person who shares this planet, we cannot afford to have any more data centers. They have been shown to take significantly more than they could ever give and leave the areas around them dried out and destitute. Please oppose this data center.