

Imani Campbell

AI is not worth using up our limited water resources. It's an unnecessary tool that benefits nobody and extracts too many resources from our land. Please do not go through with Project Jupiter. The future of our community depends on our actions to limit waste.