

Michelle Biel

New Mexico and the South West is under a severe drought. It is reckless to place a data center that can cause possibly irreparable damage to the area, ground water and to the people in the surrounding area.

Please stop this.