

Honor Prochnow

I would like to stand against project jupiter as it would significantly affect our already declining environment. It would affect our air quality along with worsening the drought we are already in. The world does not need another data center.