

Sean Stelten

I do NOT support granting of this permit. This project has vastly more potential, near guaranteed, to create a multitude of environmental and economic problems for New Mexico far exceeding any "benefits" it might provide. This has been proved many times over with similar other projects around the country. Do not approve this permit.