

Locke Locke

I just ran into canvassers walking around downtown Albuquerque handing out pamphlets with misinformation on Project Jupiter. I scanned their QR code and it took me to this site where there was a pre-written comment describing the misinformation. Project Jupiter would be terrible for the state of New Mexico. It would use millions of gallons of water and emit more pollution than NMs three largest cities combined. Deny all of their permit applications.