

Dawn Martinez

I do NOT support this project. Someone submitted a positive comment in my name but that was not me. I am concerned about the environmental costs of this project and the possibility of increased energy costs. We live in the desert and we cannot afford for any of our water to go to something like this. We should not build this here. Thank you.