

Leah Ellis

I do not want Project Jupiter in New Mexico. Our environment is wildly more important and more precious. The Rio Grande is already dry, Project Jupiter would make it worse, regardless of what technology it changes to. No to project Jupiter. No to its air quality permit. New Mexicans deserve public approval. And we do not approve of this.