

Laura Stokes

The long-term environmental harm to the community and the state overrides any short term benefits to the community. The real benefits go to the corporation at the expense of the citizens. Please do not let this go forward.