

Meme Fry

Nobody with a tax bracket below 50% asked for this absolute joke of a climate disaster. Project Jupiter would release insurmountable amounts of greenhouse gases and poison not just the nearby schools and communities, but the environment ITSELF. The hispanic residents are already suffering from environmental racism. it's also not even guaranteed to WORK because this type of power has never been done to this level. It's so exhausting and ridiculous that we have to get on here and plead you all not fucking kill us with your next "get rich quick" scheme of useless ai, just so you can give more money to shareholders. The public demands a moratorium on any development and construction of this facility and a ban on any similar to it— at MINIMUM.