

Willow Goode

I appose project Jupiter. It will wreck our environment and make clean drinking water less accessible when that's already an issue worldwide. I come from the poorest county in my state and I have seen what it's like to not have clean water. It's not livable. It's not sustainable. It's horrible for elderly, infants, and people who suffer from autoimmune diseases or likewise.