

Felma Vrecenar

As a resident of New Mexico who is very worried about our water issue, allowing an ai data center to be build in our state is a big problem for everyone. We as New Mexicans should preserve the only water we have for future uses and for our future generations. We do not need another data center to pollute and empty our river.