

ALEX BEAVER

Data centers are stripping individuals of their safe drinking water and electricity. All for what? Personal gain and wealth. Generative AI and data centers will be the death of many including the planet we live on. If we keep heading in this direction there will no longer be a future for human life.