

Ricki Kain

As a New Mexican and public school teacher I strongly oppose this permit. Our children's futures and the health and safety of our environment should not be for sale. Our air quality is already suffering greatly from pollution and wildfires. Corporate greed spawned the growing climate crisis we are in, and this permit would only exacerbate these issues. Community over profit always.