

Willa Clark

While I do not live in New Mexico, I will be impacted by the 10 million tons of carbon dioxide that fuel cells from project Jupiter will release. I will also be impacted by the water shortages this project will cause, as the rio grande has already started to dry up before this project has even fully begun. This project is a climate disaster, and will impact everyone in this country. I am begging that you halt the continuation of this project immediately.