

Karen Hernandez

The desert is not the right place to build this type of center. We struggle with water quality, 2 years ago or water was contaminated and I got acid burns from showering that day. I am scared that we will have yet more problems with the quality of water in Santa Teresa again.