

Gwen Young

Stop project Jupiter. We need our planet more than we need ai and more than we need "the biggest data center in the world." Think about the communities and the families that rely on the Rio Grande, instead of being selfish and thinking of the ai it can build and advance.