

Eugene Martinez

If the money was to get put back into our state and address the current issues that we are currently struggling with such as road issues and environmental problems that we do have.