

Jennifer Braun

I am very concerned about the effects project Jupiter will have on New Mexico. I just moved to Las Cruces from FL and love this state so much already. Building data centers, no matter how "clean" they are, produces pollution in the form of noise, light, and space. Our state is so beautiful and no one wants to see these things taking up space in the beautiful vastness of the state.