

Erica Davis

I am not in favor of this project. As a former resident of Las Cruces who loves Dona Ana County dearly, I do not believe this is in the best interest of anyone. It is a dangerous proposal that will at best maybe have short term benefits at the expense of a fragile environment that does not need this strain. In the long term there is little reason to doubt that it will be harmful to the people and to the environment.