

Sandra Chavarría

As a New Mexico resident I vehemently oppose the issuance of air quality construction permits for Project Jupiter microgrid facilities. A full environmental impact study, to clarify potential effects including greenhouse gas emissions and aquifer depletion, is critical for the protection of our natural resources and by extension our communities. Please protect our state.