

Risa Bridge

I am strongly against the NMED approving the Yucca Growth Infrastructure, LLC air quality permit. This rewritten proposal is no better than the last. The amounts of pollution this data center will create is still horrendously unacceptable from a neighbor's point of view. As an environmental economist, I genuinely cannot stress the importance of conserving our resources and not contributing to technologies that take away from our own people.