

Vico Carpinelli

I very much oppose the construction of this, it would be terrible for communities already struggling with sufficient education and environment, such as water usage. Definitely clean up New Mexico and help with the actual issues before going with them.